

1-The fridge does come out closer to the end of the wall in the Diamond Now brand, but this is where the other two line ends.

2-This panel is another $1.5^{\prime \prime}$ for the diamond now so the cabinets do come out farther towards the left room.

3-Right now, the over hang towards the left is about 8 inches. If this is a problem, we could put in a blind corner cabinet instead of the lazy susan corner cabinet that is currently in there. This line on the wall, this is the end of the measurement that I got from the installers.
